Jumping Clinic with Brian Sabo

July 7-8, 2017

Brian Sabo, owner of EventingTrainingOnline.com, served as the President of the United States Eventing Association from 2010 - 2013. He first competed in the sport of Eventing in 1962, winning his first Classic Three Day at the Preliminary level in 1968 and then the US Intermediate Championships (Gladstone Trophy) in 1969. Brian's competitive career spanned over 20 years with rides on both East and West coasts at the Advanced level until 1984 when his teaching took precedence. Since then, Brian has been a big part of the Eventing and equestrian worlds, from an extensive clinic calendar to designing and building the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Eventing show jumping course to coaching Vaulting and Eventing Young Riders programs. Brian is a graduate A Pony Clubber and has served in many volunteer capacities including Woodland Hills Pony Club District Commissioner and serving on the Boards of Governors of the AVA, CDS, USEA, USEF and Woodside Horse Park. Brian is also a highly respected trainer, a faculty member of the USEA Instructors Certification Program, and a Level 4 ICP Instructor. Currently Brian is coaching the USEA Area VI Young Rider team.

Clinic Fee: $260

This clinic is offered as a two (2) day clinic only.

Jumping Clinic With Stephanie Goodman

July 7-8, 2017

Stephanie Goodman is an international jump, dressage and eventing competitor, graduate "A" Pony Clubber and USEA Certified Instructor through CCI (ICP level III), USHJA Certified Trainer Hunter, Jumper and Equitation. Stephanie started her horse education early; a daughter of a retired racehorse trainer, professional team roper and lifetime show jump riders Susan and Vern Goodman. Stephanie spent her younger years working and riding with Sally O'Connor and Robin Sundeen in Northern Utah before traveling in Virginia to work with David and Karen O'Connor in 1995. With the help of the O'Connor's, Stephanie had opportunities to ride several event horses successfully through the advanced level, work and train in Ireland and England, and learn from the very best including Anne Kursinski, Jimmy Wofford, Michael Page, Jane Savoie and others. She and her husband Joshua Sylce run Wasatch Sport Horses, an equine enterprise specializing in hunter/jumper, three-day eventing, and dressage in Eagle, Idaho.

Clinic Fee: $160

This clinic is offered as a two (2) day clinic only.
