

Maya Black Clinic!

All proceeds to benefit improvements at the Winter Sun Horse Park. Ride and learn from the best while supporting our local XC course!

Maya is a 5* event rider and trainer. She grew up on Whidbey Island where she achieved her A in Pony Club with strong recommendations. One of Maya's most notable achievements is having been named as traveling reserve rider to the 2016 Rio Olympics. She has placed in the top 3 at the Kentucky 5* and other CCI4* competitions. She has won various competitions at the 4*, 3* and national levels. Maya has been named to numerous US training lists over the years and is currently on the High Performance Development Potential list. Maya has worked for and trained under some of the most notable professionals and competitors across the English disciplines including: the O'Connors, Debbie McDonald, her cousin Adrienne Lyle, Jan Byyny, Mark Kyle, Silvio Mazzoni, Brian Murphy and Clayton Fredericks. She grew up with some of the NW's best: Ruth Moore, Linda Chatfield and the late Amy Tryon. Maya's greatest joys are producing young horses to be successful, confident, well rounded individuals while taking them as far up the levels as they want to go. She also loves coaching students of all ages and levels who want to learn. Maya currently spends her time working and training in Ocala and Middleburg.
